

Dr René Schmidpeter (born 1974) lectures in corporate social responsibility at national and international universities. He is head of the Centre for Humane Market Economy (Zentrum für humane Marktwirtschaft) in Salzburg and is a member of the Austrian chapter of the Club of Rome. René Schmidpeter has conducted extensive research in the fields of strategic CSR management, corporate citizenship and sustainability, and has published several publications on these issues with Springer Gabler publishing company.